The Council of Ministers of the Kurdistan Regional Government (KRG) on Wednesday held its regular meeting chaired by Prime Minister Masrour Barzani, and condemned the PKK attack in Chamanké sub-district, Dohuk governorate.

The KRG Cabinet issued the following statement:

“The Government asserted that the Kurdistan Region has the legitimate political and legal status representing the people of Kurdistan, and that the Peshmergas are the defending forces of its people and territories. Any attack on the Peshmerga forces constitutes an attack on the people of the Kurdistan Region.

“The KRG is opposed to intra-Kurdish conflict, and such attacks is considered as crossing the red line. The KRG condemns in the strongest terms the attack on the Peshmerga forces by the PKK, and considers it an aggression on the Kurdistan Region and our legitimate institutions.

“The KRG will prevent any attempt to destabilise the Kurdistan Region.
